We've done several murder mysteries from this website but Once Upon a Murder was by far the most fun, in terms of costume. Everyone really put some effort into it this time. I think the fairy tale theme got everyone feeling a little nostalgic and a little silly. The story was phenomenal and everyone had such a used the Large Group version of Once Upon a Murder as a very enjoyable social evening within a weekend of serious business as the Board and senior staff of a large charity. There were about 20 people present, and the 11 character version fitted well, allowing people choice as to whether to act or ask questions, but keeping everyone involved.
